

Gracefully Global Group LLC Past Performance Statement (DOD, Educational, Commercial Markets)

Customer	Location	Product(s)	POC	Description
DoD - Childcare Development Center & Preschool	Nellis Air Force Base, Las Vegas, NV	Good Night Captain Mama / Buenas Noches Capitán Mamá	Keana Sullivan, Asst Chief, 99FSS CDC 1 (702) 652-9729; keana.sullivan@us.af.mil	Author visit and books for two classrooms of preschool-aged children of military service members; resulted in children learning about role of mommies in the military and expressing their emotions about separation from parents
Ravenswood School District	East Palo Alto, CA	Good Night Captain Mama / Buenas Noches Capitán Mamá	Lorena Morales-Ellis, Asst. Supt. of Curriculum & Instruction, (650)329-2800 x 60178; lmoralesellis@ravenswoodschools.org	Four-month contract to support a highly diverse student population. Organized college-going/career day event and content presentation for 800 middle school students; aviation workshop for students ahead of taking orientation flights; presented at multi-school science event. Resulted in students meeting dozens of inspirational role models as seen in our literature + TV news stories about innovative work being done in school district.
Severance Middle School (Weld Re-4 School District)	Windsor, CO	Good Night Captain Mama and Latinnovating	Jen Maley, Library Media Specialist; (970) 674-5208; jen.maley@weldre4.k12.co.us	Latinnovating books for all student participants in a writing and peer-editing workshop PLUS a “STEM of Aviation” workshop featuring founder’s military career and the making of the children’s book. Resulted in students thinking long-term about their future educational pathways, careers and writing skills PLUS this news story about their learning experience.
Montgomery County Public Schools	Adelphi, MD	Good Night Captain Mama	Kerrin Torres-Meriwether, Teacher at Buck Lodge Middle School; (240) 855-4464; Email: kerrin_a_torresmeriwether@mcpsmd.org	Bilingual assembly for middle school students, half ELL students, based on the book. Presentation was titled “The Unlikely Military Aviator,” featuring founder’s military career and the making of the children’s book. Resulted in students thinking long-term about their future educational pathways, careers and lives.
Chemeteka Community College	Salem, OR	Good Night Captain Mama and Latinnovating	Linda Ringo – Reyna, Multicultural Student Services Coordinator (503) 399-5143; linda.ringo.reyna@chemeketa.edu	Multiple student presentations and large Veterans Day assembly; books for all student attendees. Resulted in student population getting exposed to a variety of STEM case studies of innovation to inform college-going thinking.
Green School National Conference	Denver, CO	Latinnovating	Bretta Beveridge, Conference Producer, (206) 235-8249; bretta@bev-com.com	Keynote presentation alongside President Obama’s Secretary of Education (Arne Duncan) on Latinnovating case studies to 3000 educators/school board members. Resulted in educators getting exposed to a variety of STEM case studies of innovation from the Latino community.
National Hispanic University	San Jose, CA	Latinnovating	Marta Escalera, Director, Student Success Program, 408-273-2709; maescalera@nhu.edu	Summer bridge program workshop of Latinnovating case studies to encourage college-going planning; books for all student attendees. Resulted in students learning of dozens of inspirational role models featured in our literature.
Fairchild Air Force Base AAFES Community and Family event	Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane, WA	Good Night Captain Mama / Buenas Noches Capitán Mamá	Brienn Bell, Services Business Tech, FAFB Exchange (510) 244-2440; bellbj@aafes.com	Author visit with books event for children of military service members; Resulted in children of service members learning of the military service of inspirational role models as seen in our literature.
Toyota of America	Los Angeles, CA	Latinnovating	Isabel Chattas (305) 495-9012; Isabel@SiiNCagency.com	For Toyota’s major launch of Prius V, service was keynote speech for bilingual media event; all journalists given copies of Latinnovating . Result: Toyota’s sustainability initiatives tied to Hispanic community cultural values.
Oracle Inc	Event in Arlington, VA	Good Night Captain Mama / Buenas Noches Capitán Mamá	Traci Wade, (301) 856-3787; traci.wade@oracle.com	Oracle sponsored books for the BPW Foundation Veterans Day event at the Women in Military Service for America memorial. Result: military women and veterans received Oracle-branded, bilingual children’s book to take home and share; Oracle received long shelf-life branding with EXACT audience for Diversion & Inclusion initiative.
Hewlett-Packard	Silicon Valley, CA	Latinnovating	Ashley Houk, (415) 572-3596	HP hired us to produce and present a GLOBAL webinar for their Hispanic Employee Resource Group to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month. They purchased books to gift to those who attended.

NOTE: Many more client testimonials are listed at both www.Latinnovating.com and www.CaptainMama.com sites.